

[redacted] telephonically FRIEDMAN telling him that he had good information against SHEIKH RAHMAN and wanted to met with FRIEDMAN to tell him about it. According to [redacted] FRIEDMAN turned down this opportunity as well.

FRIEDMAN stated that he had written an article in the "Village Voice" dated November 15, 1991, connecting [redacted] [redacted] to a terrorist group headed by SHEIKH RAHMAN. He said that after this article was published he received many telephone calls from individuals who were incensed over the conclusions that he had reached. He does not remember any specific calls from either [redacted]. He did say however, that he asked anyone who called him and asked for a meeting, that the meeting had to take place at the offices of the "Village Voice". FRIEDMAN said that at the time the article was published in November, 1991, he did not know who either [redacted] was. FRIEDMAN stated that he would send SA [redacted] a copy of the November, 1991 article.

Memorandum

To : SAC [redacted] (P)

Date 11/23/94

b3
b6
b7C
b7E

From : SA [redacted]

Subject: [redacted]

ATTEMPTED BOMBING; OO:NY

For the information of SAC, on November 22, 1994, SA [redacted] met with ROBERT I. FRIEDMAN Dob November 29, 1950, 532 LaGuardia Place, Box 140, New York, New York, (212) 675-7122. FRIEDMAN is journalist, primarily for the "Village Voice", but also on occasion for "Vanity Fair", "New York Magazine" and "The New Yorker". The meeting was conducted in a coffee shop in the vicinity of FRIEDMAN's apartment. The purpose of the meeting was to advise FRIEDMAN of information regarding him obtained during the debriefings of [redacted] in July and August, 1994. FRIEDMAN was provided only with information which related directly to him. He was also advised that SA [redacted] was contacting him as private citizen and not as a journalist. He was requested not to publish the information provided to him, he said that he would not. FRIEDMAN was provided with the following information;

b6
b7C

FRIEDMAN was advised that during the course of the debriefings of [redacted] stated that he had attempted contact FRIEDMAN via telephone. [redacted] said that wanted to met with FRIEDMAN to discuss FRIEDMAN's version of the Muslim Religion, which [redacted] did not appreciate. [redacted] knew that FRIEDMAN had written an article in the "Village Voice" regarding [redacted] and his connection to SHEIKH OMAR ABDEL RAHMAN. [redacted] also knew that FRIEDMAN was the author of a book on RABBI MEIR KAHANE, "The False Prophet". According to [redacted] he attempted to arrange a meeting with FRIEDMAN, but FRIEDMAN insisted that the meeting take place at the offices of the "Village Voice". [redacted] did not agree with this arrangement so the meeting never took place. FRIEDMAN was told that [redacted] stated that the real reason for the meeting was for [redacted] to do harm to FRIEDMAN.

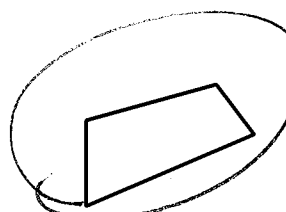

b6
b7C

FRIEDMAN was also advised that [redacted] attempted to contact FRIEDMAN using a different strategy [redacted]

b3
b6
b7C
b7E

① [redacted]

1-SAC [redacted]
1-Supv. [redacted]

SEARCHED [initials] INDEXED [initials]
SERIALIZED [initials] FILED [initials]
NOV 23 1994
FBI NEW YORK